Experience

Ernesto Rey has been a partner in the Garrigues Commercial Law Department since 2011, a firm he joined in 1996. In his professional activity, he has participated in highly complex acquisition, restructuring and financing operations, including:

- M&A operations in various sectors, with special attention to the primary sector, both in the hands of private equity entities and family businesses, defending the interests of the buyer or seller.
- Management of due diligence processes.
- Project financing operations.

- Financial restructuring operations, hand in hand with bank pools or representing the interests of the refinanced companies.

He also provides ongoing advice on contractual and corporate matters on a recurring basis to large national and foreign companies established mainly in the geographical area of the Valencian Community through his capacity as legal adviser to the board, or as non-director secretary of the administrative body. It also provides special advice on these matters:

- Family business: active participation in processes for defining the family strategic plan, drafting family protocols, drafting partner agreements and parasocial agreements.
- Incorporation of entities regulated by the National Securities Market Commission.
- Advice on protected plant varieties, defining the corporate structure of entities that exploit this type of rights, as well as their contractual platform.
- Minor issues in the field of succession civil law.
