Banking and Finance

Ramón Tejada is a partner in the Tax Department of Garrigues and is the national head of Garrigues' "Banks and Savings Banks" multidisciplinary group.

He is an expert in, inter alia, the taxation of financial institutions and insurance companies, as well as in all tax aspects relating to capital markets and financial products.

He provides recurring legal advice on tax matters to the leading financial institutions and insurance companies operating in Spain, and he regularly advises on M&A and internal restructuring transactions performed by such entities and by private equity firms, investment funds (national and international) and companies from industrial sectors (advertising, distribution, food and beverage). He has participated in a number of reorganization projects in the Spanish financial sector (bank mergers and integration processes such as institutional protection schemes) and ongoing adviser to major multinational groups operating in Spain.

Ramón Tejada belongs to various international groups of lawyers.

He is a regular speaker at seminars and conferences organized by the firm and various specialist centres.

He has been a member of the Madrid Bar Association since 1993.

Experience

Ramón has been a partner since 2004. He joined the firm in 1993.

He has extensive experience in financing transactions, and in providing advisory services to financial institutions and insurance companies, private equity funds and large multinational groups.

He provides recurring tax advice on the main M&A and internal restructuring transactions (mergers) performed by these entities.

Worth noting is his expertise in advising on financial products and FinTech.

Ramón has a good command of Spanish, English and French.

He is a member of the Garrigues Board of Partners.

He has participated as a mentor in Integra Foundation's guidance project for people at risk of social exclusion.
