Tax

Family Business

Fernando Castro Silva is a partner in the Tax Department of Garrigues, where he has practiced since 2006. He is a lawyer-specialist in tax law, practicing mainly in the areas of family business, estate tax management, corporate and asset reorganization, with a holistic view of tax phenomena and family and commercial law. The advice he provides covers various sectors and industries, in particular financial institutions in general, real estate, construction and tourism. In addition to consultancy, he acts in tax litigation in the same areas. In addition to his law degree he qualified as a Certified Public Accountant in 1988, having cancelled this qualification when he joined Garrigues. He is a recognised lawyer by the main international directories of tax lawyers and the author of several publications and public speeches. In addition to his native language, Portuguese, he speaks Spanish, English and French.

Experience

Fernando Castro Silva is a partner in the Tax Department, where he practices in all areas of national and international taxation, mainly advising Portuguese and multinational business groups, financial institutions, insurance companies, civil construction and real estate sector undertakings and family companies.

From 1982 to 1989, he was a lawyer with the SONAE Group, responsible for a vast number of company acquisitions, transactions, mergers, spin-offs and internal restructuring operations. In 1988, he co-founded BL&C - Auditores e Consultores, Lda., an audit and consultancy company, later on related to the French audit and consultancy firm Guerard Viala. Between 1995 and 2005, during the acquisition of BL&C by the latter multinational audit company, he was an international partner at Mazars.

In 1994, he co-founded Castro Silva & Associados, Sociedade de Advogados.

He is a Member of the Commission for Tax Reform by appointment of the Ministry of Finance (1999-2001). Member of the Working Group for the Revaluation of Tax Benefits by appointment of the Ministry of Finance (2005). Member of the board for the recognition of the specialist lawyers of the Portuguese Bar Association. Former member of the direction of the Company's Lawyer Institute of the Portuguese Bar Association. Former member of the Portuguese Certified Public Accountants' Bar.
